I do know about it. At this point TXRRC has lead oversight and the RP (RPG) is conducting the cleanup.

Hi,

I just spoke to a reporter about a spill in Lytle, TX (Bexar and Medina Counties). It sounds like flooding caused a tank or something to spill into a subdivision community lake/pond this weekend. I told him we would not likely respond to anything at a waterbody of that type, but I wanted to check with you to make sure.

Thanks,
Jennah
